

Instructions for finding UNIPID courses through SISU

1. Log in to your student account as usual.

2. Click on “Search” at the top right, and your screen should look like this:

3. Click on “Cross-institutional courses” and type the course code on the “Search” tab.

Search for courses

Available courses at the higher education institution

Continuous learning courses

Cross-institutional courses

Search for courses at other higher education institutions

Search for courses at other higher education institutions that you can take when you have a study right at Tampere University. You can search for courses by text, filters, and their combination.

Search

DEVM5004

Q SEARCH

Search for courses by title or code. The search term must be at least three characters long.

Filters

Cross-institutional network

Search or select

Higher education institution that organises studies

Search or select

Language of instruction

Search or select

Teaching in a specific period

Search or select

Field of study

Search or select

Registration open

Search or select

4. Click on the blue button “SEARCH” and the course will appear below.

Search

DEVM5004

Q SEARCH

Search for courses by title or code. The search term must be at least three characters long.

Filters

Cross-institutional network

Search or select

Higher education institution that organises studies

Search or select

Language of instruction

Search or select

Teaching in a specific period

Search or select

Field of study

Search or select

Registration open

Search or select

1 result.

Sort

Relevance

Special Courses in Development Studies 2 (5 cr)

DEVM5004

Cross-institutional network: Finnish University Partnership for International Development

Language of instruction: English

Higher education institution providing the studies: University of Jyväskylä

ADD TO COURSE CART